

EASTER SEASON

PRAYER GUIDE
2022

“[If] Lent is a time to give things up, Easter ought to be a time to take things up. Champagne for breakfast again—well, of course. Christian holiness was never meant to be merely negative....

[The Easter Season ought to be a time to balance out Lent by taking something up, some new task or venture, something wholesome and fruitful and outgoing and self-giving.

[If] you really make a start on it, it might give you a sniff of new possibilities, new hopes, new ventures you never dreamed of. It might bring something of Easter into your innermost life. It might help you wake up in a whole new way. And that’s what Easter is all about.”

Celebrating the Resurrection

There's much wisdom in preparing for Easter for 40 days because Easter itself is a 50 day celebration in response to the resurrection of Jesus Christ, his victory over sin and death, and his gift of new and everlasting life. Yes, that's right: Easter is much more than one Sunday of chocolates, pastel outfits, egg hunts, and spiral hams! The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the best news of all, and so it's only right that we spend a lot of time celebrating.

Whereas Lent is marked by mourning and fasting, Easter is marked by boisterous celebration and taking up new things. Find ways to feast with your brothers and sisters! Continue leaning into the means of grace and the spiritual practices that root us in the resurrection of Jesus. It's a season to celebrate the new life Jesus makes possible in all areas of our lives. For many of us, much of 2020 and the start of 2021 felt like a long Lent. Let's cling to the good news of Easter all the more!

As we celebrate, we ask God to give us eyes to see the ways he is bringing forth resurrection life in our lives, homes, work, church, and world. This long season helps us confront our brokenness and to offer it to the God who overcame death and assures us that he will lose nothing that is his, but will raise it to new life when he returns (John 6:39). This long season gives our imaginations ample time to be shaped by the resurrection more and more. May it be so!

In this light, we offer this prayer guide. We hope it encourages you in this time and helps cultivate in you a resurrection imagination. As you pray by abiding in God's words, may the Spirit give you new eyes to see the resurrection of Jesus at work in you and around you, in your friendships and home life, in your work and city, and in the most unexpected places. And may the Spirit show you how you can proclaim the resurrection in all these areas in both word and deed.

Use this guide on your own, with your roommates or spouses, and even your family. If this way of being with God is new to you, engage as you can, even if it's for a few minutes, and then build on it. God is faithful to make us "deep people" of his love, so let's give ourselves to him.

With great love for you all,

Pastors Jamison Galt and Brian Steadman, with thanks to Rev. Marc Choi

"Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland." — Isaiah 43:18-19

Ask the Spirit to give you eyes to see the new thing God is doing in and around you.

The Song of Response

Lift up your hearts through one of the prescribed Psalms for the morning. Pray the whole Psalm or focus on a part.

The Confession

Lord, you call us to love as you love, to care as you care, and to seek justice, mercy and truth. But we fail to heed your call, draw back from those in need, and say nothing when we see injustice. Forgive us. You are doing a new thing; give us courage to receive it and share it with joy.

Amen. (silence)

Listening to Words of Love

Read the prescribed Gospel or Epistle, or both.

Abiding in Love

- Linger over a phrase or verse and sit silently in them.
- What resurrection words do you hear for the world?

Practicing Thanks

- As you go about your day, take time to look at the mountains, plants, flowers, and animals around you. What surprises you? Give thanks for creation and its witness to us.

Closing Prayers

Offer to God your needs and the needs of your neighbor, church, city, and world. Conclude with the Lord's Prayer and/or following collect:

Christ is risen! Lord, may this Good News raise in us new hope, new joy, and new life. May we proclaim this Good News in all we do and say and in every corner of our homes, work, city, and world. Amen.

Make time for Noon Prayer (pg. 20) and look ahead to Evening Prayer.

A Short Noonday Liturgy - Pausing to be Refreshed

OPENING

I lift up my eyes to the hills
From where does my help come?
My help comes from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth. (From Psalm 121)

SCRIPTURE

Re-visit one of the passages from this morning. Savor a few verses that grip your heart and imaginations.

CLOSING

Conclude with one of the following prayers:

Heavenly Father, send your Holy Spirit into our hearts, to direct and rule us according to your will, to comfort us in all our afflictions, to defend us from all error, and to lead us into all truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or

Blessed Savior, at this hour you hung upon the cross, stretching out your loving arms: Grant that all the peoples of the earth may look to you and be saved; for your tender mercies' sake. Amen.

Or

Almighty Savior, who at noonday called your servant Saint Paul to be an apostle to the Gentiles: We pray you to illumine the world with the radiance of your glory, that all nations may come and worship you; for you live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.

Or

Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my peace I leave with you:" Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly city, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever. Amen.
